City-County Council commend Mayor Ballard on the many accomplishments of 2009

INDIANAPOLIS—From the beginning of his term as Mayor, Greg Ballard stated that public safety would be his top priority and that he would fight for every job opportunity for the people of Indianapolis. His goal has been to make local government work, while maximizing the efficient use of taxpayer dollars.

President Ryan Vaughn and the Council is proud of the Mayor's record on crime; Because of it, crime is down by more than five percent. The Mayor's fiscal responsibility has passed two balanced budgets, and his focus on neighborhoods, businesses and better schools has made our city more livable, more attractive to families and more attractive to business and the jobs they bring.

The Council applauds Mayor Ballard for his outstanding efforts to keep the City of Indianapolis a World Class City and will continue to help him enact his vision.
